BasWare increases its presence in Switzerland through Arcplace

Cooperation with Arcplace: Swiss specialist in Information Management and Archiving becomes new sales partner of BasWare

Munich, 17. April 2007 --- BasWare, supplier of solutions for the automation of financial processes, is expanding its sales in Switzerland. To this end, the Finnish company has secured the partnership of the Swiss company Arcplace AG: Arcplace is known for its innovative Information Management and Archiving solutions. The sales partnership with BasWare will expand Arcplace's solutions portfolio, particularly in the area of electronic invoice processing. As such, Arcplace customers will profit from the well-developed best-of-breed solutions provided by the Finns, which automate the entire purchase-to-pay process.

The contract sealing the partnership has now been signed by both companies in Zurich. Robbert Spierings, Managing Director of Arcplace AG declared: "It is our aim to continually optimise digital archiving solutions and related processes. Our customers can therefore adhere to the laws and regulations and reduce costs since efficiency can be greatly improved. The partnership with BasWare is an important milestone for us, as BasWare is one of the most renowned specialists for the automation of financial processes."

Klaus Tenderich, Channel Manager of BasWare GmbH, emphasises the strategic importance of the new partnership for the BasWare partner programme: "Through Arcplace we have an excellent partner in Switzerland, which will create new market opportunities for us. However, it is Arcplace's customers above all who will gain from the partnership as well as all Swiss companies that wish to optimise their business processes. Arcplace can now also offer them an innovative solution for electronic invoice processing."
